Jan Lord

"Creating harmony, warmth and a reflection of life itself is my goal." Every painting that I create is done with the intention of providing the viewer with joy and happiness. Each painting reflects my love of life and nature. While my instincts guide me to be more conservative with my creations, my free spirit takes over and my art develops into something more bold and creative than I would have imagined.

Born and raised in Canada, Jan studied art from the time she was in grade school. In the summer months during her childhood, she could be found painting in the beautiful parks of Vancouver B.C. Throughout her career, she has studied with a variety of Canadian and American watercolor and acrylic artists. Through these instructors, Jan has found her own totally unique style.

Techniques include acrylic, oil pastels, glazing and adding a variety of elements such as aluminum, graphite, paper, iron, nuts and bolts on wood panels. Jan's true inspiration comes from music. The rhythm and words will have an emotional effect that transforms into vibrant colors, abstract shapes and images. Her mixed media works are known for their layered color fields and heavily textured surfaces. Photographs do not do justice to the level of intricacy and detailing.
